The Commanding Officer trusts that every member of the Regiment will be efficient at the close of the present year.

1. What song shall America sing —
Young heir of the elder world —
Whose knee ne'er bent to a tyrant King,
Whose banner defeat ne'er furled?
A song for the brave and the free!
No echo of antique rhyme!
But a shout of hope for the day to be —
The light of the coming time.
2. From the dark low lands of the past,
Loud swelling o'er stifled cries,
The hero's shout sweeps on the blast
Where wounded Freedom dies.
The drums' dull beat, the trumpets' blare,
From the far-off years are heard:
But the paean of King's is Man's despair,
And the hope of the world deferred.
3. 'Tis the song of the free we sing,
Of a good time not yet born;
Each man shall of himself be King
When breaks that gladsome morn.
The earth shall be beneath his feet,
And a fair sky overhead.
And those now sad shall find life sweet,
And none shall hunger for bread.
4. Sing then our American Song!
'Tis no boast of triumphs won
At the price of another's wrong,
Or of foul deeds foully done.
We fight for the wide world's right,
To enlarge life's scope and plan,
To flood the earth with hope and light,
To build the Kingdom of Man!

1. Who, when darkness gathered o'er us,
Foes and death on every side,
Clothed in glory walked before us,
Leading on like Israel's guide?
'Twas Jehovah! He, appearing,
Showed his banner far and wide.
2. When the trump of war was sounding,
'Twas the Lord who took the field:
He, his people then surrounding,
Made the strong in battle yield.
To our fathers, few in number,
He was armor, strength, and shield.
3. In the God of armies trusting,
'Mid their weakness, void of fear;
Soon they felt their bonds were bursting,
Saw the dawning light appear.
Clouds dissolving in the sunbeams
Showed the land of freedom near.
4. Hark! We hear to heaven ascending,
From the voices of the free,
Hallelujahs, sweetly blending
With the song of Liberty.
Power Almighty, we the victory
Ever will ascribe to thee.

BOSTON, August 26, 1880.

A special meeting of the Ancient and Honorable Artillery Company will be held at the Armory, Faneuil Hall, on Monday evening, August 30, at 8 o'clock, to hear the report of Committees upon the parade of the 17th September, and the Fall Field Day celebration, also for the transaction of such other business as may be properly presented.

The Company having accepted the invitation of the City Committee to join the procession to take place on the 250th Anniversary of the settlement of Boston, and the proffer of the services of the Corps as special escort to the City Government having been unanimously accepted, it is hoped that members of the Company will, by their presence and encouragement, endeavor to make this special and interesting parade a grand success.

The fact that the organization of the Ancient and Honorable Artillery Company was almost coexistent with the settlement of Boston, that so many of our distinguished citizens have served in our ranks, that the Company acted as escort to the city upon the 200th Anniversary celebration, and that the Chief Marshal of the procession, Col. Members of the Ancient and Honorable Artillery Company are hereby notified that the regular meetings of the Company, for business and drill, prior to the celebration of the 243d Anniversary, will be held at the Armory, Faneuil Hall, on MONDAY evenings, the 16th, 23d and 30th insts., at 8 o'clock.

Per order of the Commander.

GEO. H. ALLEN,

Clerk A. & H. A. Co.

P. S. Attention is particularly called at this time to Article IV. of the Rules and Regulations of the Company.

OFFICERS.

SECT. 1. The commissioned officers of the Company shall be a Captain, First Lieutenant, Second Lieutenant, and Adjutant, all of whom shall be chosen by ballot on the day of the Anniversary Parade.

At the first regular meeting, in the month of May, the Company shall go into Committee of the Whole, to nominate commissioned officers; and for this purpose nominating lists shall be opened, and remain open until at least three persons are named for each office, commencing with the Captain. The Clerk of the Company shall cause to be prepared printed lists of such nomination and at the next regular meeting the Company shall consider the nominations and express its judgment thereon by ballot, — the person having a majority of votes for any office to be considered as the regular candidate of the Company.

SECT. 2. The number of non-commissioned officers of the Company shall be proportioned to the number of its active members, and shall be fixed annually, previous to the election of officers; provided that in no case shall the number be less than is required by law for a company of Infantry.

SECT. 3. At the regular meeting of the Company, at which commissioned officers are nominated, there shall be chosen a committee of seven, whose duty it shall be to present in print, at the next regular meeting of the Company, two lists of candidates for sergeants, — one list to be candidates for sergeants of Infantry, and one to be candidates for sergeants of Artillery. Each list shall contain the names of at least twice as many candidates as the number required to be chosen. The sergeants of Infantry shall be first balloted for, and the required number having the highest number of ballots shall be the nominees; and the sergeants of Artillery shall then be nominated in like manner.

ARTICLE IX., SECT. 2, of the Rules and Regulations of the Company.

Any member who shall divulge the names, or give any intimation of the candidates selected for officers, previous to the Anniversary, or who shall repeat any observation made, respecting the character of any candidate for admission, to any person not a member, shall be liable to be dismissed from the Company, by a majority of the votes of the members present at any regular meeting.

The following poem, by Lieut. Horatio N. Crane, now in his eightieth year, was intended to have been read by him at the dinner, but want of time prevented:—

THE SPIRIT OF '76 AND ITS SEQUENCE.

In seventeen hundred seventy-five
A great commotion did break out
At old CONCORD and LEXINGTON,—
There was the scene, 't is past a doubt;

There did patriots fight, bleed, and die,
Midst flash of fire and clash of steel.
Soon after, more of them were seen
On BUNKER HILL for woe or weal.

The red coats, dressed in armor bright,
By thousands they in number came;
By hundreds only was our strength,
In ammunition just as lame.

In many after years of grace,
The ground on which brave WARREN fell,—
There Liberty's sons high did raise
A monument, the spot to tell.

When this commotion first broke out,
The Yankees mustered in great speed;
They talked and planned, and felt quite sure
That something mighty it would breed.

When factors like those thus engaged
In such hot times do come together,
What would the shrewd one but premise
Than seed would sprout in such warm weather?

While men like ADAMS, SAM and JOHN,
GEORGE WASHINGTON, and LAFAYETTE,
United are when armies fight,
Vict'ries are won as sure as fate.

The seed thus sown, deep root it took;
The blaze thus lit, it flamed high:
Their contest was for right; for this
To GOD they raised their humble cry.

In GOD'S own time a child was born;
Its parent's name was Liberty.
It was a comely-looking child,—
A smarter one you ne'er did see.

It was a healthy, sightly boy:
His eye it glistened like a star;
His muscles seemed of iron made;
Voice thund'ring, like Young America.

July the fourth, in seventy-six,
Assembled his godfathers were
In Independence Hall, when they Did christen him right then and there.

Independence did they name him,
Being a son of Liberty;
Nations around all did fear him
When he assumed austerity.

JOHN HANCOCK was prime godfather,
And did, for this young, sprightly boy,
Boldly affix his name unto
The deed which gave true patriots joy.

Ancients, hear! this the Cradle is Where this boy was rocked,—nursed to might!
To protect him, let us all, all,
Our honor with our fortune plight!

Hence, comrades, raise your banners high,
And flout your ensigns in the sky:
Forever let their motto be,
Truth, Justice, Freedom, Liberty!

Now, since those days of yore, we see
Great cities from sparse hamlets rise;
From provinces huge States to grow;
Still, onward! loud are freemen's cries.

From distant East to the far West,
O'er hill and dale let th' shout go forth,
Sons of Freedom! United be!
For Union ever pledge your troth!

Whiles in this hall oft our grandsires
Merry times have had; and as they Did tarry long, mid much good cheer,
Thus now do you want LONG to stay.

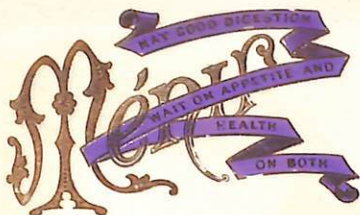

For some years past, an active PRINCE
With us an honored guest has been;
He paved our way to parks, and now
To waters clear and pastures GREEN.

Ancients, you know a captain we
Have to elect 'fore close of day;
Subalterns, too; and all want t' hear
What WILL H. CUNDY has to say.

And now my ditty I must end:
Soon to the Common we must go,
Parade, elect, then off, to the tune
Of Yankee Doodle Dandy, O!

My country, 't is of thee,
Sweet land of liberty,

Of thee I sing;
Land where my fathers died,
Land of the Pilgrims' pride,
From every mountain-side
Let freedom ring.

My native country, thee,
Land of the noble free,
Thy name I love;
I love thy rocks and rills,
Thy woods and templed hills,—
My heart with rapture thrills
Like that above.

Let music swell the breeze,
And ring from all the trees

Sweet freedom's song:
Let mortal tongues awake,
Let all that breathe partake,
Let rocks their silence break,
The sound prolong.

Our fathers' God, to Thee,
Author of liberty,
To Thee we sing;
Long may our land be bright

WRITTEN FOR THE OCCASION BY

MUSIC COMPOSED BY
HOWARD M. DOW.

(Solo sung by Mr. V. CIRILLO.)

Ancient and honored in time and in story,
Your banner ablaze with the sunlight of glory,
The past is secure;
The record unwritten must be of your making;
Remember the dead, and your trust ne'er forsaking,
Your scutcheon keep pure!

Link in the chain that extends through the ages,—
The chain that was welded by soldiers and sages,—
By good men and true,
By patriots, martyrs on Liberty's altar,
Men steadfast, unflinching, men ne'er known to falter;
Their fame is with you!

Read you their story—hearts thrilled with emotion—
Those God-fearing heroes who crossed the wide ocean

To worship in peace;
Who laid the strong walls of the great coming nation,
In free-conscience stone and cement toleration,
And gave you the lease.

Fearless they strive with wild beast and wild
savage,
They conquer the foemen who cruelly ravage
Homes frenzied with fear;
And when overburdened with kingly oppression,
When weary of prayer and of vain intercession,
In arms they appear.

Twice do they triumph o'er Albion's armies;
Secure from invasion and foreign alarm is
Their dearly loved land;
And when is uplifted the flag of Secession,
The sons of the men who met Briton and Hessian
Spring up, sword in hand!

Ancients! above from the sky's concave ceiling
Your comrades are looking, to you are appealing;
"Remember the past!

Preserve the old landmarks, alone they shall save
you;
Transmit to your sons unimpaired what we gave
you;

Be true to the last!"

THE AMERICAN SONG.

WRITTEN BY
M. J. SAVAGE.

MUSIC COMPOSED BY
VINCENZO CIRILLO.

(Solos sung by Mrs. RICHARDSON and Mr. ADAMS.)

1.

What song shall America sing,
Young heir of the elder world,
Whose knee ne'er bent to a tyrant king,
Whose banner defeat ne'er furled?
A song for the brave and the free!
No echo of ancient rhyme,
But a shout of hope for the day to be,
The light of the coming time!

2.

From the dark low lands of the past,
Swelling loud o'er the victim's cries,
The hero's shout sweeps up the blast
Where wounded Freedom dies.
The drum's dull beat and the trumpet's blare
From the far-off years are heard;
But the paean of kings is man's despair
And the hope of the world deferred.

3.

'Tis the song of the free we sing:
Of a good time not yet born,
Where each man of himself is king;
Of a day whose gladsome morn
Shall see the earth beneath our feet
And a fair sky overhead;
When those now sad shall find life sweet,
And none shall hunger for bread.

Sing, then, our American song:
'Tis no boast of triumphs won
At the price of another's wrong,
Or of foul deeds foully done.
We fight for the wide world's right,
To enlarge life's scope and plan;
To flood the earth with hope and light,
To build the Kingdom of Man.

The line will be formed promptly at 7.45, and leave the Armory promptly at 8 o'clock, marching to the Brunswick Hotel, on Boylston, corner of Clarendon Street, where will be received the officers of the Webster Historical Society and its guests, including CHESTER A. ARTHUR, PRESIDENT OF THE UNITED STATES, who will be escorted to the home of the late Daniel Webster, at Marshfield. Cars leave the Old Colony Depot at 9.15.

The exercises of the day will be as follows: Lunch immediately on arrival at Marshfield; escort to the tomb of Webster, where music and address will be given, after which the Historical Society and its guests will be escorted to their quarters and the Company dismissed. After a short interval, dinner will be served by Dooling in a large tent. After dinner the sides of the tent will be thrown open, giving opportunity to hear the addresses at the dinner of the Historical Society.

The escort will again be taken up and return to this city by a special train leaving Marshfield at 5 o'clock.

As the hour of leaving the Armory is very early, it is necessary that the members of the Company shall secure their tickets and badges before the day of the parade; and for enabling them to do so, the Clerk may be found at the Armory on Saturday, Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday before the parade, from 2 1-2 to 5 1-2 o'clock, and on Monday evening after the Company Meeting.

The assessment has been laid at $7.00.

BAGGAGE.

No baggage will be taken except overcoats, which must be securely rolled; these must be properly checked to provide for their transportation, but the Quartermaster will assume no risk in case of loss.

DIRGE.

ORIGINAL HYMN.

AIR — "Zion" (an old favorite of Mr. Webster's).

Darkly sealed the mausoleum, keeping	Sorrows blending,
Sacred dust, so long at rest;	Link the States from sea to sea,
Nations mourn and peoples weeping,	Never-ending
Green the turf so fondly blest,	Triumph of perfect unity.
Faith enshrining,
Joins our souls with those arisen.	Rock of ages! cleft, to duty
Angels twining,	Kindly hold these granite walls,
Wreath our prayers in one for heaven.	Shielding age and youth and beauty,
	Yield! when God the Saviour calls.
Not alone the statesman sleepeth,	Angels guiding,
Who listening senates held command,	Mouldering dust return to life,
Stalwart sons the tomb here keepeth,	Faith abiding,
Martyred with the union band.	Rise! beyond a world of strife.

A PSALM OF LIFE.

HENRY W. LONGFELLOW.

Tell me not, in mournful numbers,	And, departing, leave behind us
Life is but an empty dream!	Footprints on the sands of time:—
For the soul is dead that slumbers,
And things are not what they seem.	Footprints, that perhaps another,
	Sailing o'er life's solemn main,
Life is real! Life is earnest!	A forlorn and shipwrecked brother,
And the grave is not its goal;	Seeing, shall take heart again.
Dust thou art, to dust returnest,
Was not spoken of the soul.	Let us, then, be up and doing,
	With a heart for any fate;
Lives of great men all remind us	Still achieving, still pursuing,
We can make our lives sublime,	Learn to labor and to wait.

ARMORY A. & H. A. Co.,

Boston, Dec. 13, 1882.

DEAR SIR:—

For a long time there has been a feeling more or less prevalent among the members of the Ancient and Honorable Artillery Company of Massachusetts, that it was practicable and desirable to hold a grand Military and Civic Promenade Concert and Ball, which should be on a scale of magnificence and of such a character as to bring credit to the name and history of our organization.

For the purpose of ascertaining how extensive this feeling actually is, this circular is issued to members of the Company, that every one may have an opportunity of giving substantial token of his approval of such a scheme.

The cost of such a Ball would necessarily be very large (probably not less than seven thousand dollars), and to insure success financially a large number of tickets at the rates indicated would have to be sold.

If you feel favorably disposed toward the enterprise, will you please to fill out the annexed blank over your own signature and address, and return the same to the address of the Clerk of the Company before December 25?

You will bear in mind that this is in the nature of a guarantee, and that the encouragement given by the number of subscription tickets will govern the action of the commander in the question of the expediency of calling a meeting of the Company, and the appointment of a committee to carry out the suggestion herein contained. The Mechanics' Association Building has been suggested as the proper place for holding the Ball, if one is to be given.

CAPT. JOHN MACK,

LIEUT. GEO. H. ALLEN,

Clerk, A. & H. A. Co.,

CITY HALL, BOSTON, MASS.:

The undersigned, a member of the Ancient and Honorable Artillery Company, hereby agrees to take and pay for..... tickets, admitting a gentleman and lady, at the rate of $3.00, and ..... tickets admitting a lady, at the rate of $1.00, to a grand Ball, if such shall be given in the month of February or March next, under the auspices of the Company, the date to be hereafter determined; tickets being for admission only, and refreshments an extra charge.

HEADQUARTERS A. & H. A. CO.,
BOSTON, March 28, 1883.

Members of the Ancient & Honorable Artillery Company are hereby notified that the regular spring meeting of the Company will be held at the Armory, Faneuil Hall, on Monday evening, April 2d, at 8 o'clock.

At this meeting the Commander will announce the Preacher of the Anniversary Sermon, and a Committee of Arrangements for the Anniversary will be chosen.

At the meeting of the Company held Oct. 9th, 1882, the vote whereby the Bronze Badge was adopted was reconsidered, and pending a motion to allow badges to be made of such material as individual members desire, the subject was postponed to this meeting for consideration.

BOSTON, Sept. 22, 1883.

Members of the Ancient and Honorable Artillery Company are hereby ordered to appear at the Armory, Faneuil Hall, at 3 o'clock P. M., on Monday, October 1, next, in uniform complete, to celebrate the Fall Field Day.

The Company line will be formed promptly at 4.30 o'clock, and, accompanied by Reeves's American Band of Providence, and Clarke's First Regiment Drum Corps, will proceed over a route to be hereafter designated to the Old Colony Railroad Station, where cars connecting with steamer "Bristol" will be taken for New York via Fall River.

Members of the Company will have all baggage at the Armory before 4 o'clock on Monday, and see that it is properly marked and checked, and on Wednesday morning all baggage must be sent down from the rooms and properly checked, as there will be no opportunity to return to the hotel during the day, and all baggage will go immediately to the boat on the Company leaving the hotel.

The attention of members of the Company is directed to the necessity of promptness in assembling on Wednesday morning, that there may be no delay in the movements of the command.

The hours of assembling and moving in New York are subject to changes to be hereafter announced in Company orders.

Company guides will be designated by the Adjutant, and Sergeants of Companies will report at the Armory promptly at 3 o'clock on Monday.

BOSTON, April 10, 1884.

Members of the ANCIENT AND HONORABLE ARTILLERY COMPANY are hereby notified that arrangements have been made with J. W. Black & Co., the celebrated artists, 333 Washington Street, in this city, for sittings for a Photograph Album of all members of the Company.

The member sitting will be entitled, without expense, to receive two Cabinet Sized Pictures for his personal use. The needed Pictures for the Album, mounted on heavy card, 10 x 12 inches, ready for binding, and upon which members are requested to affix their autograph, and place and date of birth, will be furnished the Company free by Black & Co. Any additional Pictures, which members may desire to order, will be furnished them at the very moderate price of $2.50 per half-dozen, or $4.00 per dozen.

This is a work which will be of great interest and value in the future, and it is hoped that members will give early attention to the subject. The very liberal opportunity presented by our comrade, Mr. Black, of obtaining a Collection of Pictures for the Armory, should stimulate every member to the exertion of contributing toward the completion of the work by an early sitting, which may be in military uniform or citizen's dress, the former being preferred.

ARMORY A. & H. A. Co.

BOSTON, Nov. 12, 1884.,

DEAR SIR:

The celebration of the completion of the Washington Monument, Feb. 21, 1885, will be an historical event for America. It seems eminently appropriate that the Ancient and Honorable Artillery Company of Massachusetts, the oldest military organization on this continent, should participate in the exercises. An honored member of this Company, whose name has been borne upon our roll for the period of fifty-five years, Hon. Robert C. Winthrop, delivered the address at the laying of the corner-stone of the Monument, and is expected to be the orator on the occasion of the coming celebration.

At a meeting of this Company, held on the 15th of September, a Committee was appointed to consider the feasibility of an excursion to Washington on the occasion of the forthcoming celebration, and on the 29th day of September that Committee reported that such an excursion was practicable and could be made, leaving this city on Thursday afternoon, Feb. 19, and arriving in Washington on Friday evening, the 20th; returning, leaving Washington on Monday morning, the 23d, and arriving in Boston Tuesday morning, Feb. 24.

ANCIENT AND HONORABLE ARTILLERY COMPANY

OF MASSACHUSETTS.

EXCURSION TO WASHINGTON.

To Major GEORGE S. MERRILL,

Chairman of Committee of Arrangements.

The undersigned hereby subscribes for one ticket for an excursion of the Ancient and Honorable Artillery Company of Massachusetts, to the city of Washington, D. C., on occasion of the celebration of the completion of the Washington Monument, February 21, 1885, at thirty-five dollars, payable on demand of the committee. Said ticket to cover all necessary expenses of transportation, meals and lodging for the trip; leaving Boston, February 19, P. M., and returning, arrive in Boston on Tuesday morning, February 24, 1885.

In case of the death of the subscriber before the time fixed for the excursion, the sum paid by him shall be refunded to his legal representative.

.....Signature.

.....Residence.

.....Place of Business.

Dated at ..... 1884.

The Committee estimate the expense of such an excursion to be thirty-five dollars, provided not less than one hundred and fifty members participate, and this is as small a number as the Committee feel would properly represent the Company.

The Committee have informally received signatures of some members, but desire a formal agreement from such members as desire to join in the excursion, and therefore inclose to you a circular for your signature, which they desire members who will participate to sign and return to the Clerk of the Company, P. O. Box 1548, Boston, as early as possible, and in no case later than Nov. 24, 1884.

It is expected that every member of the Company participating in the excursion will do so in full uniform.

This excursion is a voluntary one on the part of members of the Company, and members not participating are not liable to assessments therefor.

For the Committee,

GEO. S. MERRILL,
Chairman.

GEO. H. ALLEN,
Lieut. and Clerk.

ARMORY A. & H. A. Co.,

BOSTON, Nov. 25, 1884.

The Committee on the Washington Excursion have extended the time for receiving replies to their circular of Nov. 12 to the date of this meeting, Dec. 1, and members are requested to respond at once, that the committee may be able to report the number who will join in the proposed excursion.

It is hoped that all members interested in the success of the proposed excursion will be present at this meeting, that definite action may be taken on the report of the committee.

Propositions for membership may be made at this meeting.

AUGUSTUS WHITEMORE,

Captain.
